
Agreement on the Veiid-Frigonian Economic Area

In accordance with negotiations, the following terms have been drafted as of December 9th, 2208 to be the terms followed by all signatory Parties engaging in the Veiid-Frigonian Economic Area.

Section 1

1. The Parties recognize their borders and respective areas of governance as they are on December 9th, 2208, unless a change in territory is agreed upon by all Parties following negotiations.

Section 2

2. The Parties heretofore agree to freely exchange goods and services without tariff, with the exception of those relating to national defense.
 - a. Goods and services relating to national defense include military equipment, intelligence, and technical knowledge. Industry such as the production of military equipment does not fall under this category.

Section 3

3. The Parties agree to maintain and develop their respective economies, through their own means and mutual aid, in order to effectively engage in the Veiid-Frigonia Economic Area.

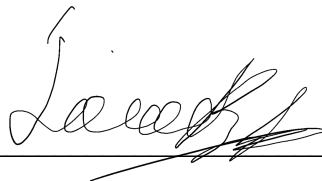

Section 4

4. All Parties will maintain military and economic neutrality towards each other in the event of a conflict.
 - a. No Party will undertake military action, sanctions, or other actions in support of an aggressor in the event of a conflict.
 - b. A conflict is defined as an aggressive action by an external party. This includes sanctions, military actions, and attacks perpetrated by third parties such as paramilitary organizations.
 - c. Aggressive actions as stated in Section 4b perpetrated by a member Party are not covered by Section 4, and all members are free under the terms of this agreement to take what actions they see fit.

Section 5

5. All Parties shall at any time, if any of them so requests, enter negotiations together with all other Parties with the intent to alter the terms of the agreement.
 - a. To alter the terms of the agreement includes the acts of secession, alteration of terms of neutrality, alteration of terms of trade, or addition of another party.

Signatures

Joe Biken
President of Frigonia
Acting President of Frigonian Union

Goran Herminov
Elected General Secretary of the Pan-Veiidic Commonwealth